

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW...

ABOUT THE TRANSFER OF DISABILITY SERVICES IN THE MURRUMBIDGEE

By 30 June 2018 all NSW Government services provided directly to people with disability will move into the non-government sector. This will allow the NSW Government to transfer every dollar of its disability budget directly into the NDIS, where it will be used to provide supports to the people who need them.

WHEN IS THE TRANSFER HAPPENING?

THE TRANSFER OF DISABILITY SERVICES WILL BE COMPLETE IN NSW BY

30TH JUNE 2018

TRANSFERRING OUR DISABILITY SERVICES ALLOWS

$600 MILLION MORE EACH YEAR

TO BE AVAILABLE FOR THE NDIS IN NSW

NSW IS TRANSFERRING ITS DISABILITY SERVICES TO THE
NON-GOVERNMENT SECTOR IN ORDER TO PROVIDE

GREATER CHOICE

FOR NDIS PARTICIPANTS

NUMBER OF ADHC OWNED AND OPERATED GROUP AND RESPITE HOMES

15,788

HOURS OF CLINICAL SERVICES DELIVERED

NON-GOVERNMENT
ORGANISATIONS
CURRENTLY PROVIDE

OF DISABILITY
SERVICES IN NSW

WHERE CAN I GET MORE INFORMATION?

For more information about the transfer of disability services go to www.adhc.nsw.gov.au/disabilitytransfer or email SpecialistDisabilityServices@fac.nsw.gov.au